

LTA lab

Leaf Tissue Analysis laboratory was established in 2011 with financial assistance from State Horticultural Mission and sample analysis started from 2012 onwards. Since then the laboratory has efficiently catered the soil testing needs of Wayanad district as well as other districts of Kerala. The services of this lab have been recently expanded and are utilised by several farmers and extension functionaries from Tamil Nadu and Karnataka.

